DARMANN 2015 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

June 18, 2015– Each year Darmann recognizes employee’s children whom will be furthering their education by attending a college or technical program following high school with a $500 scholarship. This year we had one award recipient, Kurtis J. Bakerlis. Kurtis is the son of Kirt Bakerlis who has been a Darmann employee since 2003, he will be attending Walla Walla University in Washington.

“I would like to thank Darmann Abrasive Products, for recognizing and rewarding scholarships to employee’s children that want to further their education.”
